

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 960

Introduced by Assembly Member Montanez

February 18, 2005

An act relating to nutrition.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 960, as introduced, Montanez. Childhood obesity and nutrition.

Existing law establishes a program to promote public awareness of the need to consume fruits and vegetables in order to improve health and prevent major chronic disease. Existing law also creates a program to aid in child development from the prenatal stage to 5 years of age, by providing parental education, support service, and child health care service that emphasizes nutrition.

This bill would declare the intent of the Legislature to enact legislation relating to childhood obesity and nutrition.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature to enact
- 2 legislation relating to childhood obesity and nutrition.
